SCHOCK COLLECTION

SCHOCK was established in 1924 and took the world by storm with the creation of the first granite sink, which to this day continues to be manufactured in Germany. The quality German engineered sinkware has been created using state-of-the art composite Nanogranite® materials.

It offers exceptional strength and durability, stain resistance and inert, antibacterial properties. The SCHOCK range includes 90 patents and over 200 sink models, in various colours and finishes. You can expect the material technology to be impact and stain resistant, heat resistant, food safe and also offer a dirt repellent effect. SCHOCK sinks are created to last and to leave the surface free of odour.
